If the application is approved as filed, Enbridge Gas Inc. will replace the existing London Dominion Line and the London South Line with approximately 82.1 kilometres of 4 inch and 6 inch diameter pipelines, between Dawn Compressor Station to Komoka Transmission Station. Enbridge Gas Inc. is also proposing to construct 8.4 kilometres of pipeline originating at Strathroy Gate Station, in the Municipality of Strathroy-Caradoc, and connecting to the new pipeline.

A map showing the location of the proposed pipeline is below.

Enbridge Gas Inc. is also asking the Ontario Energy Board to approve the form of agreement it offers to landowners to use their land for routing or construction of the proposed pipeline.

Enbridge Gas Inc. says that the project is needed to address pipeline integrity concerns.

THE ONTARIO ENERGY BOARD IS HOLDING A PUBLIC HEARING

The Ontario Energy Board (OEB) will hold a public hearing to consider the application filed by Enbridge Gas. During the hearing, we will question Enbridge Gas on the case. We will also hear questions and arguments from individual consumers, municipalities and others whose interests would be affected. At the end of this hearing, the OEB will decide whether to approve the application.

As part of its review of this application, the OEB will assess Enbridge Gas' compliance with the OEB's Environmental Guidelines for the Location, Construction and Operation of Hydrocarbon Pipelines and Facilities in Ontario.

The OEB will also assess whether the duty to consult with Indigenous Communities potentially affected by the proposed pipeline has been discharged with respect to the application.

The OEB is an independent and impartial public agency. We make decisions that serve the public interest. Our goal is to promote a financially viable and efficient energy sector that provides you with reliable energy services at a reasonable cost.
